Hunters Lodge road plan under way

WORK on the long-awaited road safety improvements on the A35 accident blackspot at Hunters Lodge is finally under way.

After a spate of fatal accidents in 2013 and renewed calls for action, Highways England came up with a plan and started work yesterday (April 3rd) to reduce speed and make the road safer for drivers and pedestrians alike.

Work will go on for 11 weeks, and a Highways England spokesperson said: "Included in the work will be reconfigured lane markings, a signalised pedestrian crossing, the installation of vehicle activated signs in both directions, a new, high-friction road surface and signage.

"For the majority of the scheme (nine out of the 11 weeks), drivers will be able to travel normally on the A35, with two weeks of full overnight closures in place between Bridport and Axminster from May 30th."

During this time, other routine maintenance work will be carried out on the A35.

The spokesperson added: "There have been a number of accidents in and around the Hunters Lodge junction in recent years, so work is being done to improve it. This safety scheme has been developed with input from a number of local stakeholders, including the local MP and town and parish councils. Once completed, it is envisaged that the road will be safer for motorists and pedestrians."

The spokesperson also explained that poor weather might delay work, and that motorists will be kept informed through roadside signs.

When the project was announced two months ago, Axminster mayor Cllr Paul Hayward told Pulman's Weekly News: "I'm very pleased to learn that the long-awaited project at Hunters Lodge is due to begin after much discussion, planning and co-operation between the relevant authorities and bodies concerned."

"I must thank all those who have been involved for so many years in bringing these highway improvements to fruition; not least the local ward councillors, district councillors Andrew Moulding, Douglas Hull and Ian Hall, our local MP Neil Parish, all at Devon County Council Highways and Highways England, but also the local residents at Raymonds Hill who campaigned so hard for so long to make their voices heard."

The overnight closures will be in place from May 30th, from 8pm to 6am, and during these weeks, light westbound traffic will be diverted via Beaminstree, Crewkerne and Chard, with an eastbound diversion in reverse.

HGVs and caravans travelling westbound will be diverted from the A35 at Dorchester, via Yeovil and Ilminster, again with a reverse eastbound diversion.

The spokesperson added: "The programme of work will be completed in mid-June, in time for the summer holidays."

"In the meantime Highways England advises drivers to plan their journeys and allow extra time while they are being delivered."

"We'd like to apologise in advance for any inconvenience this work may cause you. Due to the nature of the works there will be sporadic noise. However, we will do our utmost to keep this to a minimum in residential areas."

"Thank you for your co-operation and patience whilst we carry out these roadworks."

NEWS FROM AROUND PULMAN'S COUNTRY... East Devon & South Somerset

Registration deadline for county elections next week

WITH local elections taking place in just a few weeks, voters in East Devon and South Somerset are being urged to make sure they are registered to vote and are able to take part on polling day - Thursday, May 4th.

The call for voters to sign-up comes as the Electoral Commission launches a national voter registration campaign to encourage as many people as possible to register ahead of elections taking place this year across the country. In order to vote in the county council elections, you need to be registered by Thursday, April 13th.

Mark Williams, Electoral Registration Officer for East Devon, said: "Time is running out to make sure you can take part in elections this May, so I'd encourage everyone in East Devon to take action now if they're not already registered to vote. It's quick and easy to register, but after the deadline of April 13th, it will be too late."

Emma Hartley, Head of Campaigns at the Electoral Commission, said: "Our research shows that young people, students and recent home movers are particularly less likely to be registered to vote."

"So if you have moved house recently, then make sure you're registered correctly. If you're not registered, you won't be able to have your say on issues that directly affect your day-to-day life in East Devon."

● COUNCILS across Somerset are targeting properties with no registered voters in a bid to boost turnout for their county council elections.

In an innovative initiative, mock poll cards are being sent to almost 30,000 properties reminding the occupiers that they are not yet registered to vote.

The cards, which are being distributed by all five district councils across the county in a cross-county initiative, give clear instructions on how to register to vote and a contact number for further help and advice.

At the beginning of March there were 418,000 registered electors in the county.

It is hoped the helpful reminders will encourage potential voters to meet the April 13th deadline for getting your name on the voter register.

A spokesperson for the district and county councils said: "We want as many people as possible to come out and vote on May 4th and this is the first time we have tried an initiative like this."

"There will be many eligible people out there who for one reason or another aren't on the electoral register and we hope this is the nudge they need to sign up before April 13th."

Redrow pull out of Bovis takeover

REDROW has withdrawn its takeover offer for fellow housebuilder Bovis.

The Flintshire-based company, whose share and cash offer was rejected by Bovis earlier last month, said it would not return with a higher offer.

Redrow said it had pulled out because it was "not in its shareholders' best interests to increase its proposal" and would now focus on its growth strategy.

Bovis has built homes in Seaton, Ottery St Mary and Axminster. There have recently been reports that residents are unhappy with the quality of some of the homes built at the Cloakham Lawns development in Axminster.

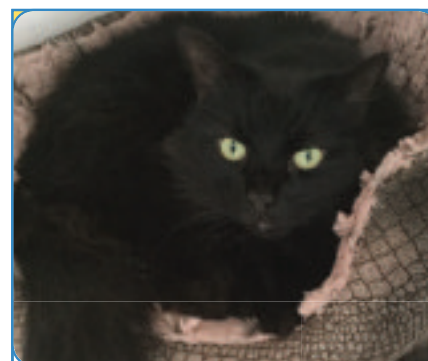

Bovis has also rejected an all-share takeover bid from Galliford Try, but has continued talks with them.

The chief executive of Bovis, David Ritchie, quit the company in January after eight years after the company issued a profit warning.

In February, Bovis announced that its annual pre-tax profits had fallen three per cent to £154.7m.

Yeovil man sentenced to 21 years for sexual offences against three girls

A 55-YEAR-OLD man from the Yeovil area has been jailed for 21 years after being convicted of sexual offences against three girls.

Peter John Kingdon, of Barwick, near Yeovil, was sentenced at Taunton Crown Court on Wednesday, March 29th after previously being convicted of 11 charges, including rape, sexual assault and gross indecency.

The charges relate to three victims, who were aged between five and 15 at the time the offences were committed.

Investigating officer DC Stephen Bark said: "Peter Kingdon is a depraved sex offender whose appalling crimes spanned 16 years.

"A police investigation began in February 2015 when one of his victims bravely came to Yeovil Police Station to report the abuse she had suffered.

"Kingdon initially pleaded not guilty in court and maintained this up until the final hearing when he finally changed his plea to guilty.

"I would like to commend all the victims for the determination and dignity they have shown throughout the police investigation and court proceedings. I hope this outcome will encourage other victims of rape and sexual assault to have confidence in reporting offences to us, no matter how long ago the crimes occurred."

Heritage centre's second season now under way

AXMINSTER Heritage Centre has reopened its doors for a second season, looking to beat last year's figure of 4,600 visitors.

Entry remains free of charge, opening hours are longer and a local information centre (incorporating the previous tourist information) has taken up residency.

Chairman of trustees John Church said: "These changes mean the centre looks all set to beat last year's encouraging number of over 4,600 visitors."

"Over the winter many of the local volunteers have been working hard behind the scenes on several new displays which develop the story of Axminster's past - its early beginnings as Stone and Bronze Age settlements, the importance of the waters of the River Axe and of Axminster as a river crossing point for Romans and other travellers, the importance of farming and the growth of industry particularly the story of Thomas Whitty and the history of his carpet business."

"The new displays for 2017 include more about the modern Axminster Carpets started by the Dufield family in 1937 and more about the town's important brush-making industry."

This year's displays also highlight some of the eminent Victorians who shaped

They include local historian George Pulman, author of the Book of the Axe; Emily Conybeare, founder of the town's original Cottage Hospital and James Davidson author of A History of the Town and Parish of Axminster.

A programme of regular temporary exhibitions will start later in the year.

The centre is open from 10am to 4pm on weekdays and from 10am to 1pm on Saturdays.

Starbucks store coming to former Little Chef site at Taunton Cross

THE former Little Chef site on the A35 at Taunton Cross - between Kilmington and Wilmington - is set to become a Starbucks coffee store.

A spokesman for Starbucks UK told Pulman's Weekly News: "We are excited to announce that we'll be opening a new Starbucks store in partnership with Euro Garages on the A35, near Shute."

"The new store will open this May and we look forward to bringing our great quality coffee and becoming a community hub for our local customers."

Euro Garages, who specialise in roadside retail convenience outlets, have purchased a number of former Little Chef sites across the country since 2013 and converted them into branches of the Seattle based coffeehouse.

Yarty Party to support care service

YARTY Party organisers have chosen to support and raise funds for Axminster Care Service and Health and Local Food for Families (HALFF).

The family-friendly festival will be held at Axminster Showground in July and will feature live music, DJs, creative workshops, activities for children, food and traders' stalls.

The line-up includes bands like Square One, Misha & His Merry Men and Perfect Strangers.

Organiser Kara Burrough said: "We have chosen these two charities to support this year as they hold a strong community ethos, and that is what we are all about."

Her fellow organiser Dave Moore added: "We have sold almost a third of our tickets to date."

"We are humbled and pleased that people are backing this exciting new festival."

Route 66 restaurant closes its doors after ten years

AN Axminster restaurant has closed after ten years in the town centre.

American-themed Route 66 owners Gina (who is from Texas) and Kirk King have moved to New Zealand.

Before opening Route 66 they ran other businesses, including the railway station café.

In a message left in the window of the Route 66 premises, they said: "We have enjoyed our 15 years in Axminster."

"We have definitely made the most of our time here and would like to thank all our customers over the years."

"It has been our pleasure to serve you all."

'Red lines' protest hospital cuts across the area

HUNDREDS of angry East Devon residents were out in force on Saturday, as they held demonstrations across the area against cuts to hospital beds and services, writes PETER HODGES & ANDERS LARSSON.

Protesters, dressed head to toe in red, at Honiton, Seaton and Ottery St Mary hospitals formed human 'red lines' to protest against the halving of hospital beds across East Devon, in a show of solidarity with their neighbours.

Approximately 350 people gathered at Seaton Hospital, where the speakers included MP Neil Parish, local GP Dr Mark Welland, town mayor Cllr Marcus Hartnell, town councillor Martin Shaw and deputy mayor Cllr Jack Rowland.

Dr Welland told the crowd: "The CCG is making a massive mistake, they haven't listened."

"Let the CCG prove they have a better service in place before they close a single bed. I don't think they will be able to do that."

A Seaton Town Council working party on a potential judicial review – similar to what Honiton is hoping to achieve – was set to present its findings on Monday evening as this paper went to press.

The council was expected to debate a motion to make money available for initial legal advice on seeking a judicial review of the decision to close the beds.

In Honiton, more than 350 people marched from the town to the hospital on Marl pits Road, as MP Neil Parish, East Devon District Leader Cllr Paul Diviani and town mayor Cllr Caroline Kolek made presentations to the nurses at the hospital for all their hard work.

Following the presentation, district councillor Mike Allen addressed the crowd saying NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group

(CCG) had made 'a callous decision knowing that social care cannot look after our sick people at home', after which MP Neil Parish said he would donate £250 towards a judicial review being sought into the decision to close the hospital beds.

Mr Parish had already pledged financial support to any review in Seaton, after being challenged to do so by a member of the public.

Heather Penwarden, Honiton Hospital League of Friends chairman, thanked everyone for their support and revealed that they had so far received £25,000 towards the judicial review in just one week.

The Save our Hospital Services Honiton Steering Group also thanked everyone for turning up and showing their support.

In Ottery St Mary, protestors braved the rain to form their own line outside their hospital.

The crowd was addressed by Claire Wright and Dr Graham Ward. Cllr Wright said: "I am personally disappointed that we were asked to move twice by staff (presumably acting upon orders from on high) on the basis we were causing an obstruction."

"Yet I had already cleared our event with Ottery's senior GP, Dr Simon Kerr, who was quite happy about us being there."

Two previous demonstrations at the hospital with a similar number of people – in 2014 and last year elicited no complaint, request to move nor a threat to call the police.

"If PCSO Maria Clapp hadn't been there, apparently this is what would have happened."

Axe Valley Pedallers hit 100 members

AXE Valley Pedallers (AVP) has built on a busy start to the year by reaching the landmark of 100 club members.

Members celebrated the membership century on a recent Sunday social ride across Marshwood Vale, from Axminster to Symondsburry and back.

Following the customary coffee and cake refueling stop at The Symondsburry Kitchen, some of the AVP riders formed a 'Human 100' to commemorate the club's record number of members.

Club chairman Jonathan Read-Bone commented: "We are really delighted to have reached this record membership landmark."

"Our club membership has already grown by over a third since last year."

"It's a great testament to the efforts we're making to appeal to cyclists of every type and ability."

"With a presence across all social media platforms and a new calendar of rides in 2017, we are really trying to offer something for everyone."

"We certainly don't want to stop at 100 members. We hope to attract

NUMBERS: Membership has reached the 100-mark

even more local cyclists, both new and experienced, to the club this year. Roll on the double century."

Memory café to reopen

AXMINSTER Memory Café is to reopen at Pippins Centre, on the corner of Lyme Road and Stoney Lane.

The café provides practical information and support, as well as the opportunity for people with dementia, their families and carers to ask questions and listen to others affected.

It also offers an informal and social environment in which to learn new skills, and undertake meaningful activities.

The volunteer-led café was forced to close earlier this year because of ill health and retirement, but is now set to reopen.

The café will run every second Monday from 2pm-4pm, starting on May 8th.

Fundraiser success for Light Up Axminster

LIGHT Up Axminster's first fundraising event was a massive success, with almost 70 people attending the group's Pizza and Quiz Night at Le Pisani, raising over £350.

The money raised will contribute towards this year's Christmas lights, and community events throughout the year.

Mum's the Word won the quiz, the team consisting of View From staff and friends Lisa Bright, Francesca Evans, Lottie Welch, Elizabeth Welch, James Coles and Jackie Evans.

Light Up Axminster's publicity and social media manager, Aaron

Walker Purse, said: "It was fantastic to see many people there, we filled each and every seat."

"I hope everybody enjoyed the evening."

"Apologies to those that we had to turn away."

"Many thanks to the whole team at Le Pisani for letting us use their venue, and donating a prize for the runners up."

"Thanks also to Costa Coffee, Tesco, Millers Farm Shop and the Yarty Party for donating prizes to the winning team's hamper."

Light Up Axminster is hoping to hold more Pizza and Quiz Nights throughout the year.

Reader Akshiya gets Gold

AKSHIYA Kannan, 5, has been presented with a Gold Book Track Award at Axminster Library.

Library supervisor Sarah Jones said: "Akshiya is only five years old so it is amazing that she has read one hundred books."

"I think 99 of them were about princesses"

"We are incredibly proud of her."

Akshiya, who attends St Mary's CofE Primary School, received a goodie bag, including vouchers for Archway Bookshop, Flamingo Pool and Pecorama.

Easter time for pets

EASTER time is a lovely time for us humans, family and friends getting together and a chance to indulge in delicious Easter delights such as hot cross buns and special cakes and biscuits. As vets we want to make sure that you and your pets have a fantastic Easter, without a trip to the practice.

What Easter is complete without chocolate? Unfortunately many dogs, and sometimes cats, also believe this to be true! Chocolate can cause vomiting and diarrhoea and in larger doses, liver failure and can be fatal. The higher the cocoa content the more the risk, so keep those expensive dark chocolate truffles out of the way of any investigative hounds in the house! Be aware of children's chocolate eggs that maybe accessible, dogs can unwrap and gobble down a chocolate egg in record time if they are left in reach!

Dried fruit is also a risk to dogs and can cause renal failure so keep Hot Cross Buns and Simnel cake away from low tables or other places your crafty hound may be able to get to. It is wonderful to see the daffodils coming up, but we need to be aware that they are highly poisonous to dogs, if your dog is a digger and likes to help you in the garden, make sure daffodil bulbs and flowers are inaccessible and lifted bulbs are stored out of reach.

For some of us, it can all get a bit much at these busy family times. We may like our house being filled with family, friends and music but not all our pets do. For some, the bustle and noise can be very stressful. If you have a timid pet who enjoys the quiet, make sure there is somewhere peaceful that they can go to not be disturbed. They may prefer to have their food and litter tray in a hidden corner.

Most importantly, have a wonderful Easter with your furry friends and if you have any worries or suspect your pet has eaten something they shouldn't, don't hesitate to call your vet for advice. Happy Easter!

Cancer-supporting zumbathon raises £1,700

A ZUMBATHON in Axminster raised more than £1,700 for Force Cancer Charity.

Katie Thomson, who runs FIT EWE, teamed up with 40 clients for the Alice in Wonderland-themed zumbathon in Axminster Guildhall on March 18th.

The zumbathon lasted for almost two hours and she said: "It was a fabulous fun morning with so much support."

"We have currently collected an amazing total of £1,735 with donations still being sent in.

"Thank you so much to all of my clients and everyone involved for making this event so special, being so supportive, working hard to raise money for such a great local charity - amazing."

"Also, a big thank you to local businesses in Axminster for generously donating raffle prizes and supporting our event."

■ TOP: The zumbathon attracted many people

Axminster Carpets triumph

THE latest collection from Axminster Carpets, Hazy Days, has won the Best Residential Woven Carpet of the Year category at the International Wool Flooring Awards.

Axminster Carpets was also a finalist in two other categories, Best Commercial Carpet and Design Innovation.

The awards ceremony was held in London on March 15th.

The Hazy Days range features "stunning patterns and hushed pared-back tones".

Offering elegant geometrics to charming botanical patterns, Hazy Days is described as "a versatile collection of grey and soft dove carpets with a twist".

■ TOP OF THE LEAGUE: Gary Bridge showing off the award

The range was further described at the awards as "blending an assortment of exquisite designs with a subtle neutral palette, the range delivers a stylish and timeless look as well as the luxury and durability of a pure wool carpet".

Axminster Carpets design director Gary Bridge said: "We're so happy that our latest collection has won this prestigious award, even more so that it is the second year we have won with a new design."

"The Hazy Days designs are a collection of designs spanning all tastes from contemporary to classic styles all inspired by interior trends of muted colours and pattern. "The collection exudes sophistication and charm and is perfect for those seeking a timeless yet contemporary feel to their room."

Marie Curie coffee morning

MARIE Curie Axminster and Seaton Fundraising Branch will hold a coffee morning on Thursday, April 6th from 9am-12noon.

The coffee morning will take place in the Bradshaw Room of Axminster Heritage Centre.

There will be hot drinks, cakes, books, bric-a-brac, plants and a raffle for wine, a fruit basket and more.

Organiser Sandy Sinclair said: "Join the Great Dafodil Appeal and become one of our happy volunteers, collecting money for our brilliant local nurses who care for people with any terminal illness."

"Please contact 01297 33655 for further information."

Library among finalists for community fund

SEATON Library is one of three finalists in the RGB Building Supplies' Well Built Community Fund – and it is now down to a public vote to see where £1,000 worth of building materials will go.

The Friends of Seaton Library hope to use the donation of materials to transform an area at the back of the building into a wildlife garden for the local community to sit and read or observe nature.

Those that don't have their own green space would be invited to enjoy the pleasures of gardening and people with disabilities would be able to use the area as a sensory garden.

Seaton Library is up against projects in Northam and Combe Martin.

Alby Cruse, branch manager at RGB Exmouth, said: "Giving the public the opportunity to choose the recipient of our Well Built Community Fund is something we launched last year and it has proven extremely popular."

"As the local branch to Seaton Library we are encouraging people in the area to get involved and vote for them."

Votes can be cast by visiting the Exmouth RGB branch during opening hours and placing a chip in the relevant box, by clicking the chosen group on the poll that will be at the top of RGB's Facebook page or by emailing RGB@pmwcom.co.uk and putting the name of the group being voted for in the subject line.

The poll will run until midnight on Sunday, April 9th.

Only one vote per person via each method of voting will be counted.

Jurassic mini-golf course to officially open on Friday

SEATON'S new Jurassic-themed mini-golf course at Seafeld Gardens will officially open on Friday, April 7th at 10.30am.

Players have been allowed onto the course since April 1st, but owner East Devon District Council and LED (which manages the course) are set to stage a formal opening ceremony on Friday.

Seaton mayor and East Devon District Council member Marcus Hartnell said:

"Local people have been eagerly awaiting the opening of the adventure golf course at Seafeld Gardens and I am certain it will be a big hit with children and adults alike."

"It is a fantastic facility for Seaton, which will encourage visitors to fully explore this part of the town."

Fire service called out after oil fired radiator falls over

FIREFIGHTERS from Seaton, Colyton and Axminster were despatched to a house in Scalwell Lane in Seaton.

They were called in the morning of Sunday, March 26th, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews investigated and confirmed this was due to an oil fired radiator over-heating, which had fallen over and created a bit of smoke within one of the rooms."

"Crews got to work to ventilate the room, one casualty was attended to by ambulance crews as a precautionary measure on scene."

Motel site fails to sell

THE FORMER Seaton Heights motel site in Seaton failed to sell at auction.

Owner Lyme Bay Leisure put the site up for auction after failing to find investors for a project to build an upmarket holiday complex there.

The auction was held on March 24th, and a spokesperson for Clive Emson Auctioneers said that six or seven people had expressed an interest before the auction.

They will be invited by the auctioneer to submit a written bid for the seller to consider.

Two new chefs at The Harbour

THE Harbour Inn at Axmouth has welcomed not one but two new chefs.

For Garry Brookes, former chef at the Jack in the Green, and Billy Fox, who's worked at the Alexandra in Lyme Regis and the Railway in Honiton, the focus is on delivering traditional pub food with a twist, as well as a high-end specials menu.

Landlady Jacki Ward-Vallance said: "We're still a cosy thatched pub that welcomes families and dogs."

"But we also want every dish to be restaurant standard – whether it's a humble fish and chips or something more refined."

Chef comes home to launch restaurant

A BEER chef is returning to his roots to launch a new restaurant in the seaside village, writes KEVIN FAHEY.

Robert Stone and his wife Susie are due to open The Smugglers Kitchen this week following an extensive refurb of the old building in the centre of the village that was previously home to an Indian restaurant.

"I used to work here in the kitchen as a 15-year-old when it was the Smugglers Restaurant and I lived in Beer," said Robert.

"Since then I have spent five or six years as head chef and then general manager at The Railway in Honiton but then they opted to change direction.

"The option arose to come back to Beer and this village has a lot of history for us. It is a nice place to live and bring up our children. "We want a good work-life balance and we are not just here to make a killing. Everyone has been very supportive since we started work on the building and that is very nice.

"There is still a lot to be done but it is very exciting to be in control of our own place and do things that I want."

Rob certainly built up a big following at The Railway and regulars there will see many similarities with the menu he is planning to launch in his first solo venture.

"At The Railway we didn't concentrate on one specific cuisine but offered dishes from all over the world, like Thai, Italian, South American and British," added Rob.

"The question that everyone asks is what type of restaurant will we be? I would say we will be serving rustic good and everything will be made in-house.

"We won't be serving up fancy plates of food that leave you feeling still hungry when you leave the restaurant.

"But as we will be cooking everything from scratch we won't be offering a huge menu of 50 dishes.

"There will be a choice of 8-10 starters and mains and then desserts. We will also be offering a home-made pizza menu.

"I think Beer is crying out for something like The Railway in Honiton."

Robert Stone with Suzie and family outside The Smugglers Kitchen

Praise for Beer from The Times newspaper

BUSINESS owners and community leaders have welcomed the recent flurry of publicity singing the praises of Beer.

Top of the list was the annual survey of the Best Places to Live in the UK published in The Times newspaper with Beer making the top 20 for the first time in the best places to live by the sea.

"A lovely little fishing village between Exmouth and Studland Bay," drooled the editorial. "There are great beach cafes and Peco, the world's leading manufacturer of model rail tracks is based here."

It was one of just two villages from Devon to make the list – Hope Cove in South Devon was the other – while the only other coastal hotspots from the West Country included Weymouth, Penzance, Mawgan Porth, Clevedon and Southbourne in Dorset.

Then to put a further rosy glow on the locals' faces the Devon Life magazine then listed Beer in its top 10 best villages in the county to visit.

"Beer is known for being a picturesque fishing village... pebbles beautifully decorate the beach down to Lyme Bay where gentle waves glide softly up to your feet and the white chalk cliffs create a perfect suntrap from the winds," purred the glowing prose.

Grant Cueto, who runs the Bay View Tea Rooms and the Indulge in Beer business, said: "People in Beer know it is a beautiful place so if publicity like this helps to attract visitors and holiday makers to come and send their money with local businesses that can only help the local economy."

Local resident Cllr Geoff Pook represents Beer on East Devon District Council and is involved in the Beer Coastal Communities team looking at ways to enhance the appeal of the village and attract more tourists.

"It is good to see the village being recognised as a good place to visit but also live," said Cllr Pook.

"It is important to recognise that the people living here full-time are integral to sustaining its future as a viable community so it is not just a place for a holiday. That is essential for the future of Beer."

Andy Williams, patron and head chef of Steamers Restaurant, said: "I think Beer is a wonderful and beautiful place to live and definitely warrants its place in The Times' top 20."

Tramway looking for more volunteers

SEATON Tramway is looking to expand its army of volunteers. The popular attraction has volunteer opportunities in the driving, meet & greet and engineering teams.

Across the board there is currently a team of about 35 volunteers helping out at the tramway. Ideally, management would like to add another five in each of the teams mentioned.

Some volunteers see their dreams come true. Dave Rawlings from Cotleigh, near Honiton, is one of them. He joined as volunteer driver for two years before becoming a paid member of staff in 2015.

He said: "I love interacting with people and also had a boyhood dream of driving a tram."

Anders Larsson

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

Mr Rawlings was born in London and brought up in Berkshire. An electric engineer by trade, he worked in the computer industry for more than 30 years.

Having moved to the West Country and taken early retirement, he spent a few years refurbishing his house. When that mission was completed, he got in touch with Seaton Tramway to see if he could help.

He said: "I wanted to put something back into the local community. I asked the tramway and they said yes.

"Anybody with an interest in trams, travel and an outgoing personality would enjoy driving a tram and meeting people.

"It is great to see people enjoying themselves."

When asked if he has a favourite tram, he said: "No, they all have their own little quirks and are a pleasure to drive."

Training is provided for all volunteers and a spokesperson said: "Becoming a volunteer means that you can enjoy benefits such as a meal voucher each day you work, unlimited free travel on the tramway for your family and friends – and discounts in our gift shop and café.

"Our team always has a warm welcome for new faces."

■ SEATON Memory Café has benefitted to the tune of £1,000 from a Devon Freemasons donation.

A total donation of £7,500 was given to Devon Community Foundation (DCF), which has allocated portions of money to various groups. DCF Chief Executive Martha Wilkinson was delighted to be presented with the cheque by Ian Kingsbury, the Provincial Grand Master of Devonshire Freemasons.

The generous gift brings the total donated over the last four years to £27,000 and was allocated to the foundation's community grants scheme, supporting hundreds of voluntary and community groups offering local people in need a helping hand.

Ian Kingsbury, who was accompanied by the Devonshire Provincial Charity Steward, Barry White, said: "It is a delight for us as Freemasons to be able to assist such a worthwhile and important local organisation, helping them to reach out to those most in need in our local communities."

The funds will support community groups like Seaton & District Memory Café to support people suffering from dementia and their carers with practical information and support, helping to reduce their isolation and fears.

A member of the memory café said: "It is a truly wonderful place to be part of, we're welcomed with smiles and laughter, everyone takes part and we're given two hours of pure joy. Meeting other people is so important."

Ms Wilkinson commented: "Over the last year we've given £495,556 to 147 local projects helping 58,539 local people in need.

"We could not do this without the support of individuals, families, and organisations such as the Devon Freemasons.

"I cannot thank them enough for their continued generosity, their contribution really will make a significant difference to local people's lives."

■ COLYTON: The president, Shelagh Derwent, welcomed visitors Erica and Frankie to our latest meeting.

There was also a welcome back to Joan Garner and a welcome home to Brenda Clark.

There is a council meeting in Torquay on April 12th and spaces on the coach are available to people not attending the meeting.

It is time to buy our programmes for the group meeting at Colyford WI on April 26th from 2pm, where the speaker will be Jane Perkins.

The competition for this meeting is a recycled vase, which must be more than 6in in height.

Therefore we will be using this as our competition for our next WI Meeting in April; the winner to be entered for the group competition. You must take a photo of the original container.

Jacky Roberts Wake gave information on the exhibition in St Andrew's Church from May 18th-21st to celebrate our 90th birthday.

Fellow institutes are presenting some of the decades; we will be showing 1920s and 2010s and following the theme, 'Inspiring Women through the Decades'. There will be a Sunday Service on the 21st at 3.30 pm.

The 90th birthday meal will take place on Friday, November 24th in the Peace Memorial Hall. For our garden meeting we are planning to visit Barrington Court on July 18th.

Thank you to Catherine Heap and Noelle Ingham for serving tea. As our speakers did not arrive Brenda Clark gave an interesting overview of her recent travels – quite a journey! Good to have Brenda back with us.

Competition: Flower of the Month – 1st, Penny Cogan, joint 2nd, Shelagh Derwent and Monica Rust; 3rd, Joan McDougall.

Next meeting on Tuesday, April 18th at 2.15pm in St John's Hall. Visitors welcome.

enjoys demonstrating and meeting artists from different art societies.

Roy has a palette of his own ready-mixed colours kept in the freezer until needed and used later with a small squirt of oil.

Whilst painting, he washes his brush in low odour thinner, stored and re-used when clear, but later soaks his brushes in neat Fairy Liquid and rinses them in hot water.

Members asked for a misty sunset image and there was sunshine burning through yellow mist as peachy colours blended into areas of a purple mix of ultramarine and scarlet lake – a thin white line marking the horizon under the sun.

Roy kept this palette for the sea, with a main wave breaking over foreground rocks, its crest a very pale yellow, and a mix of pale sap green, ultramarine and burnt sienna blending light under the curl; whilst for the choppy boiling water between the rocks, he rolled his brush with a mix of manganese, cadmium yellow (pale hue), across the water.

The next meeting in The United Reformed Church Hall will be on April 19th from 2.30 to 4.30 with Rob Dudley's watercolour demonstration on 'Rivers'.

Open letter to health secretary

■ OPEN letter to Jeremy Hunt MP, Secretary of State for Health:

I AM writing to you about the proposed closure of all the beds at Seaton Hospital.

This decision by the local CCG is flawed in so many different ways that it is difficult to know where to begin. I will keep to the main points and be as brief as possible:

1. Seaton Hospital was built in the 1980s, funded 50 per cent by the NHS and 50 per cent by the community, brick by brick. It belongs jointly to the community and the NHS. It is well equipped and well used; occupancy rates are between 85 and 90 per cent.

2. The beds at Axminster Hospital were lost a year or so ago. The residents of Axminster were assured that Seaton Hospital beds were safe and would serve the whole of the Axe Valley. This appears to have been a lie. If Seaton beds are closed, people living in Axminster would have to change buses to get to Sidmouth, so four bus journeys to get to the nearest hospital. Sidmouth has severe traffic problems, with the hospital at the centre of them. Seaton Hospital has ample parking in a quiet street.

3. Option A, which would have retained the beds at Seaton, was by far the most popular choice in the consultation. This has been ignored by the CCG.

4. The CCG statistics on population are false. They state that Sidmouth has the older population. In fact, Sidmouth has 32 per cent of residents over 65, while Seaton has 33 per cent. Both towns have seven per cent of residents over 85. What this has got to do with the final decision is impossible to fathom. Seaton is also the less affluent of the two towns.

5. Having lost Axminster beds, and proposing to lose those of Seaton and Honiton, would bring about a total collapse of the system in East Devon. How anyone can imagine that Sidmouth Hospital could cope with the extra patients is beyond belief. The 'bed-blocking' we have now would be as nothing compared to the nightmare future being proposed.

6. It is common knowledge that it would be impossible to recruit the amount of staff necessary to cover house visits on the scale suggested. Local care homes and Care in the Community services cannot fill the vacancies they have now. It is no good ignoring the blindingly obvious – it is not a popular job.

My next points relate to the policy of closing hospital beds in the wider situation.

7. In hospital one nurse can oversee several patients; care is 24 hours a day. In the community the patient is likely to have 3x15-minute visits a day. No comparison. What does the beleaguered carer do on their tighter-than-tight schedule as they arrive at a house to find a patient has messed the bed, had a stroke, had a fall, taken too much medication and all the other myriad things that can go wrong? In hospital there is control – and safety.

8. In a rural area – such as ours – driving cannot be timed with any accuracy. In a lot of cases the travelling between patients will take longer than the visit itself. This would obviously be a huge waste of time and resources.

9. Should the NHS save money with this mad scheme, the even greater financial cost would just transfer to the Care in the Community budget. It's all public money and robbing Peter to pay Paul makes no sense whatsoever.

I beseech you to retain Seaton Hospital beds and reverse this disastrous policy before it's too late.

CAROL WARD,
Seaton

CCG decision: 'Just a con'

When will the public recognise it for what it is.

Concerns over silt being deposited

■ FOLLOWING the temporary smoothing of Seaton beach for the Grizzly, I am dismayed to see renewed trench digging to deposit silt pumped from Axmouth harbour in the neighbouring parish.

Before ever consent is given for our shingle to be defiled like this another year, the waste should be analysed to determine what poisons such as lead, mercury and antifouling paint are waiting buried just under the surface for children and holiday makers to encounter.

BRIAN RAINE,
Seaton

Why were deputy mayor's comments on skatepark labelled a disgrace?

■ IN RESPONSE to the front page article in the Pulman's Axminster edition of March 21st, I should like to express my appreciation and agreement with the comments recently expressed by Deputy Mayor Cllr Lara Rowe when she described the skateboard site as a "scabby little hole".

Cllr Moulding is reported to have said that those comments were a disgrace. Why?

Is she not vested with the authority and trust of the community to speak her mind, particularly in her official capacity, on the subject regardless of whether or not that opinion conflicts with that of a fellow councillor.

It is a depressing scene highlighted by the fact that it is right beside the beautiful Axe Valley, the new cycle path and sports centre.

It certainly does not, as currently maintained, compliment them. In fact their very presence highlights its squalidness.

To daily see so much rubbish and empty beer cans regularly strewn in and around the overgrown twisted and mangled foliage is very sad.

Back in 2014, I raised a concern as to whether the project, when completed and operational at the proposed site, would receive the maintenance needed to ensure it did not turn into a lookalike discarded small scrap heap.

Sadly my fears have proved to be well founded. It is also not true that people are usually in Cloakham Sports and can be contacted.

And anyway who, for instance, are these brave people that might be expected to handle a situation arising such as when gangs use the area for drinking and rowdiness at night?

Lacks of follow through combined with wasted money have dogged this project.

The unfortunate result, not least, is that, as predicted, its legacy is that of the creation of an eye sore that the town can do without.

AFTER A BUSY WINTER, PECORAMA AT BEER REOPENS WITH A FRESH APPROACH

New vision for unique attraction without losing its old-world charm

RICHARD AUSTIN

ONE of East Devon's premier tourist attractions, Pecorama, re-opened its doors on Saturday following a busy winter of preparations.

The gardens, home to the Beer Heights Light Railway, have been a West Country family favourite since 1975 and the management team has been busy over the winter months, bringing a fresh appeal to the attraction whilst retaining its unique charm.

Pecorama, an eight-acre site nestled above the picturesque village of Beer, seems to take you back to a simpler, friendlier time as soon as you walk through the gates. You could say it's unashamedly old-fashioned, where details as small as the station masters' jackets date back to 1947 and everyone says "hello".

As well as the one-mile long Beer Heights Light Railway, considered by many to be the finest 7¼ inch gauge railway in Britain, the site boasts a plethora of attractions fit for the whole family, including themed gardens, mini golf, play parks, a nature walk with the Crawlle Hall bug hotel, outdoor performance area, and the hugely-popular Play Station indoor soft play area, now open for its fourth year and welcoming private bookings from groups and parties.

And, not forgetting where it all began, train enthusiasts of all ages can lose themselves in Peco's model railway shop and extensive and interactive exhibition, with another new layout this season. When director Michael Pritchard, son of the company's founder Sydney Pritchard, stepped aside and became chairman 18 months ago, his nephew Ben Arnold took the reins and appointed general manager Russ Pearce to help achieve his vision.

Russ commented: "Under Ben's stewardship, we decided we wanted to make Pecorama even better, without losing its charm. Visitors enjoy the slower pace and friendly feel here. A lot of effort has gone into keeping the integrity the place enjoys; to protect the brand but make it even better."

Ben added: "It has evolved over the years and Michael has added a lot, but some aspects needed a little shake-up. We have re-focused and taken a fresh look at things without being too radical."

"We wanted to modernise in some ways but keep the core values of the company. We're never going to step away from model railways; we're really proud of what we do. The common theme is quality and we wanted that to show across the board."

One of their main aims was to improve dining options at the park, which vary by season, and The Junction - offering authentic Spanish tapas and freshly-cooked pizzas - is sure to be a welcome addition this year. Visitors will be able to enjoy the Mediterranean fare al fresco with stunning views across Lyme Bay - "a little piece of Italy just above Beer," as Russ describes it.

The Junction will provide an alternative to the more traditional Garden Room restaurant, which has benefited from a kitchen refit over the winter and staff have been given training by award-winning Charmouth chef Ian Simpson, who has helped add more variety to the menu.

For something a little more decadent, cream teas, afternoon tea and high tea will be served in the genuine 1950s Orion Pullman Car - perfect for a special occasion - or, if you're looking for a quick fix, the new Whistle Stop grill will be serving up bacon and egg rolls, burgers and sausages.

There's plenty to tucker out the children after all that food, with Pecorama's play areas having also been freshened up over the winter. With large areas having been resurfaced, they boast a new train line floor graphic and play trains, along with the already-popular pirate ship and Castle Peco.

There's also a busy programme of special events set for this season, starting with Pirate Day this weekend (April 9th), and including art exhibitions, a vintage car rally, kit construction days, Peco Loco Week featuring guest locomotives on the railway track, and the annual Peco Garden Day in aid of this year's chosen charities, Parkinson's UK and the Exeter-based Step One. Looking ahead to later in the year, Pecorama's ghost train will be returning at Hallowe'en and Santa Claus has been booked in for Christmas.

Pecorama will also be launching its own sculpture trail on May 1st, which will include the work of many local artists and some from further afield. Chainsaw artist Gary Orange is also transforming trees, which have had to be cut down on the site, into works of art.

Children's entertainment will feature on the outdoor stage throughout the season, and a performance of Shakespeare's 'The Tempest' by The Inn Theatre Company will be held on the evening of July 1st. There truly is something to meet all tastes!

Bilbys Coffee Shop

BILBYS coffee shop is now in it's 16th year of trading.

They arrived in Crewkerne a week before foot and mouth came to Somerset in 2001.

Jane and Tris worked in London at famous hotels and restaurants like The Savoy, Scott's, The Berkeley Hotel and Leith's restaurant before deciding to move to Somerset to have a family.

Tris was the research and development manager for the new Oscar Mayer ready meal factory in Chard.

Bilbys coffee shop prides itself in having a great range of homemade cakes and meals all made by them. Some of the recipes are traditional like their sponges, some are local recipes like the now famous Somerset apple cake and some are old family recipes like Janes mums Ginger shortbread and Boiled fruit cake.

They serve food Monday to Saturday from 9.00 to 5.00. One of the most popular meals is the All Day Breakfast and bacon deli rolls.

Since 2001 Bilbys has improved its wheelchair access and now has a room that can be used for private parties. Many community organisations like the Chamber of Trade, Knit & Natter, The Book club, The GO-OUT club and the Baptist church use this room.

"Hatch, Match and Dispatch" Bilbys also cater for Christenings, weddings and funeral and many other types of functions.

Jane now makes many bespoke celebration cakes all made to order.

But like Jane and Tris say "We couldn't do any of this without two things The best staff in Crewkerne and The best Customers".

Perrott Hill

WHAT'S the best thing about Perrott Hill? "The friendly atmosphere and the view," says Charlotte in Year 8. "And the fun lessons," says classmate Lucy. Naturally, we agree. Children thrive here because of the family atmosphere, excellent teaching and breadth of extracurricular opportunities. But that's not all. We were rated 'EXCELLENT' in every category in our latest ISI inspection and featured once again in the Tatler Schools Guide 2017. And, says the Good Schools Guide, 'it's hard to believe anybody could have a bad day here.'

We warmly invite you to come and see the school in action at our Summer Term Open Mornings, on Friday 12th and Saturday 13th May, where you'll get the chance to explore our school and meet our pupils and Head. Booking is essential, so get in touch with our Admissions Secretary, Nola

Stone, now on 01460 72051 or admissions@perrotthill.com.

* NEWSFLASH * We've added another date to our Tuneful Tots music sessions for babies and toddlers aged 0-3, on Monday and Tuesday mornings in our Music School. Please ask Nola for more information if you'd like to come along.

Perrott Hill is a co-educational day and boarding school for around 220 children aged 3-13, nestled within beautiful countryside close to the Somerset-Dorset border.

THE MANOR HOUSE

THE Manor House is run as a small family home with the emphasis on the provision of quality individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful environment. The organisation and management of the home are the means to achieve that end.

Dr. S.H. and Mrs. S.E.C. Curry have owned, managed and resided at The Manor House since April 1996. Dr. Curry is a chartered psychologist with many years experience dealing with the rehabilitation of brain-injured individuals, whilst Mrs. Curry is an RGN with many years of specialist practice. Her experiences as ward Sister have been invaluable training in the management of staff and resources.

The Manor House's latest Care Quality Commission (CQC) inspection report in August was rated as a Good Care Service. The Manor House is a private residential care home which strives to provide the highest standard of care and permanent accommodation for 15 elderly individuals.

At The Manor House it is their aim to provide individual care in a comfortable, safe and cheerful Environment where residents' individuality, privacy, dignity and freedom are respected.

At any point in time The Manor House will have between 18 and 20 members of staff additional to the proprietors. The proprietors fully recognise the crucial role that staff play in the welfare of the residents and therefore have had a long-standing commitment to continuous staff development and training. This is evidenced by the high level of staff qualification.

Please visit our website, where you will find all the information you need to determine if our home would be suitable for you or your relative. However, if you feel you need any additional information about any aspect of life in our home, please feel free to contact us at any time.

If you are able, we would like you to visit so we can show you what our home has to offer you or your relative.

CLINICAL HYPNOTHERAPY

Stress describes the feelings people experience when the demands made upon us are greater than the ability to manage them...

HELPING you to take control of your life.

Stress describes what most people experience when the demands made upon individuals are greater than the ability to manage them. People can feel overloaded, under tremendous pressure and feel tense or emotional.

Stress affects everyone, young and old and is a completely normal reaction that will be experienced by everyone from time to time when faced with new or challenging situations.

External stressors are sources of stress that we are aware of around us, these can include traumas, life experiences or simply daily hassles. Internal stressors are the sources of stress that are inside us and are often the most common sources of stress. They are the thoughts and feelings that pop into the head and cause unease, these can include unrealistic expectations, uncertainties, low self esteem and apprehensions.

The work place is also known to be a big influence in stress. A study found that more than half of people in work suffer from stress over a period of a year, and statistics show that a quarter of workers have taken time off sick due to stress and that stress is the leading cause of sick leave. Common causes of stress at work include; workloads, long hours, responsibilities, role expectations, bullying or harassment, lack of job security, poor working environment, and lack of support. Stress can manifest itself as many different symptoms, toms, ranging from physical to psychological and behavioural, and people may experience these to varying degrees. Physical symptoms can include; increased heart rate, sweaty palms, muscle tension, sleep disturbance, fatigue, vomiting, change in breathing patterns, dry mouth, headaches, nausea or dizziness, indigestion or heartburn and sudden weight loss or gain. Psychological symptoms can include anxious thoughts, irritability, low self esteem and confidence, inability to concentrate, feeling fearful, feeling unable to cope, difficulty making decisions, feeling negative and lack of interest in life, feeling alone, loss of creativity, withdrawal, frustration and confusion. Behavioural symptoms can include interrupted or lack of sleep, use of drugs or alcohol, changes in appetite, avoiding situations, changing habits, nail biting, teeth grinding, neglect of physical appearance, lack of communication, putting off difficult jobs and giving excuses.

The first step in helping to manage the stress that you experience is to recognise what is happening is a natural response, then changing it. Michelle Hague is here to help you take control of your life.

Clinical Hypnotherapy can help to reduce stress and cognitive behavioural therapy and mindfulness have all been used to treat it. For more information or to see if Michelle can help you call 07761773563.

STOKES PARTNERS LLP SOLICITORS

PROPERTY OWNERSHIP: THINK CAREFULLY!

THE WAY in which you own your property can have serious consequences following your death: on both your estate and what your beneficiaries receive.

Joint Tenancy

When you and another opt to have equal rights to the whole of a property, you will normally choose to own it as 'joint tenants'. When you die, this property will pass to the survivor automatically. Your Will cannot determine what will happen to it. But it can if you hold the property as 'tenants in common'.

Tenants in Common

As 'tenants in common', you may each agree to own different – or equal – shares of the property. Your share forms part of your estate upon your death, instead of passing to your fellow joint owner.

Making changes

These are important considerations, because probate fees will soon be calculated based upon the value of the deceased's estate.

Our advice: do not rush to change the way you own your property.

Do not assume that by owning your property as joint tenants, you will be saving yourself, or your beneficiaries, money.

Our Private Client team offers expert advice on these matters: contact them to make an appointment on 01460 279279.

OAK LODGE CARE HOME

Dignity is a basic human right, not an optional extra!

PHYSICAL comfort is just one measure of quality of lifestyle. Your needs, your preferences, and your well-being are what come first at Oak Lodge. The house is registered to provide personal and nursing care for older people, with a very successful, separate area dedicated for the provision of specialist dementia care.

Twenty-four hour cover is provided by a qualified, experienced and committed care team. They have recently been individually recognised as a company and a home, for their high standards and attention to detail that differentiates Oak Lodge from other homes. Oak Lodge isn't just a place to stay, but a place to call home.

At Oak Lodge we believe that another important aspect of maintaining our high standard of accommodation is redecoration when it is needed. Many of our rooms have been refreshed in recent months, including our new quiet room. This is a beautifully decorated lounge area with views of the garden where residents may spend time with visiting loved one, or simply relax.

Staff at Oak Lodge are also supporting the national initiative of Dignity Champions. A Dignity Champion is someone who believes passionately that being treated with dignity is a basic human right, not an optional extra. They believe that care services must be compassionate, person centred, as well as efficient, and are willing to try to do something to achieve this.

Please don't hesitate to call for advice, or for an information pack, with no commitment necessary. Our telephone number is 01460 67258.

HOLLY DOG VACATIONS

If you are going on holiday, working long hours or are away just too long to feel comfortable leaving your dog(s) alone we are here to help, please call to discuss any specific requirements you may have and you are more than welcome to visit with your dog prior to booking.

We have our own two labradors, who are very friendly and enjoy sharing their home with the new doggy guests. We are registered and inspected with East Devon District Council allowing us to board up to three dogs along with our own two, we are fully insured with Petplan Sanctuary.

On arrival, please bring your dogs bedding and any toys that will help make he/she feel at home. Also the food that your dog normally eats. After booking we send a questionnaire for you to complete which helps us to understand your dogs normal routine and ensures your dog settles in quickly.

If for any reason you are not able to bring your dogs bedding and food, it is not a problem we can supply both.

Your dog(s) will have their own sleeping area within our house and during the day will have the run of the kitchen and dining room. In the evening, if it's cold, there is enough room for all in front of the open fire.

We have over an acre and half for exercise and games, we also take the dogs out daily for a walk in the woods or on the beach. Please let us know on the booking form whether you would like your dog to be kept on the lead.

We are located just outside the picturesque village of Axmouth, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, just minutes from the mile long beach at Seaton and numerous Jurassic Coast walks.

If you are visiting Devon on holiday, why not let us look after your dog for the day, while you enjoy a day of sightseeing.

Holly Dog Vacations

FIRST FOUR | OFFROAD VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

Supplying Land Rover parts & accessories for almost 16 years

FIRST Four OffRoad have been supplying Land Rover parts and accessories from their base on the Flightway Business Park at Dunkeswell for almost 16 years.

The business was started in 2001 by Peter & Rose Lamb, originally near Tiverton. After quickly outgrowing original premises they re-located to the current modern unit on Flightway.

Although the business is primarily mail order, and orders received through the First Four website leave for both national and international destinations daily, they have also developed a strong local trade and private customer base, which provides a useful local service for Land Rover owners in the East Devon, Somerset and West Dorset areas. Whether you Land Rover just needs a new exhaust or one of their more specialist products such as a hydraulic winch system, First Four can help.

"Basically, if it fits a Land Rover First Four either have it or can supply it", says Director Peter Lamb. In addition to the large range of parts and accessories held in stock they have the supplier network to provide a 24 hour service for less common parts.

A feature when dealing with First Four is good experienced-based advice gained through nearly 30 years of experience using, maintaining and re-building Land Rovers of all types.

In addition to the range of Land Rover consumable parts, First Four have their own range of in-house designed accessories. This range includes replacement bumpers vehicle protection and expedition equipment. Built locally, this range has proved popular over the years and is supplied around the world. It is also popular in the UK with public utilities, emergency services and private individuals who use their vehicle for a wide range of tasks, from heavy towing to forestry and agricultural work.

The team at First Four are all Land Rover owners, so you can always be assured of receiving valuable experience-based advice. If you use a Land Rover vehicle, either as your daily drive or for your work, why not try First Four next time you need some parts or equipment.

DAVID LLOYD | CABINET MAKER

MY NAME is David Lloyd. After training at Rycotewood College in Thame, Oxfordshire, during 1994-95 I worked for small firms until I decided to start my own business.

I have been an independent cabinet maker and joiner since 2003.

From my Dunkeswell workshop, within the beautiful Blackdown Hills, I deliver mainly to Devon, Somerset and Dorset, but can deliver further a field if required.

What do I make? Well, almost anything in wood!

I make free standing and fitted furniture for kitchens, dining rooms, living rooms, bedrooms, studies, bathrooms and even the garden!

Designs are agreed with the client after discussing needs, specifications and any foibles or special features they may require.

Bespoke furniture making permits freedom of design and choice of material to suit all tastes and budgets.

I also undertake bespoke joinery commissions if you need something a little different. Awkward, odd sized or listed building compliant internal / external doors, staircases and windows etc...

I am passionate about using English timber for my commissions as I believe it has more character. However I will use solid timber from overseas if the job requires it or you would like to use it, for example, using American Black Walnut for kitchen worktops or African Sapele for doors.

I would be happy to see you at my workshop to discuss a future project or to just chat about wood. If you are thinking of visiting my workshop, please ring first to make sure I am available.

Please see my extensive portfolio online; www.davidlloyd cabinetmaker.co.uk, give me a ring 01404 891800 or email info@davidlloyd cabinetmaker.co.uk

UK's regional publishers call on national advertisers to place their trust in local news brands.

Dear Advertiser,

As Google, YouTube and Facebook continue to grapple with the concerns around ads appearing next to extremist content and fake news, we wanted to take this opportunity to draw your attention to the trusted, safe and highly responsive online advertising environment provided by the UK's local news brands and represented by the 1XL partnership.

As a premium publisher co-operative, 1XL represents over 800 local news brands in the UK with a reach of over 22.7 million people, making us one of the country's largest digital advertising propositions. This ranges from the Shetland Times in the north of Scotland to the Falmouth Packet in Cornwall, and includes large regional brands such as The Yorkshire Post and The Aberdeen Press & Journal. In many of the towns and cities that we publish in, we now reach over 70% of the adult population each month.

Our content is produced by thousands of trained and highly skilled local journalists who spend their days engaging with communities up and down the country through their coverage of the stories and events affecting their readers lives. Our content is regulated by the Independent Press Standards Organisation (IPSO), the independent regulator that holds us to account for our actions and upholds our high standards of journalism. The context in which this puts your advertising increases engagement, trust and therefore consumer response, giving you better value for money alongside the peace of mind of a safe advertising placement.

Maintaining the integrity of our content and our advertising environment is fundamental to us, and local news brands have always scored extremely well for trust. This was validated by a recent Comscore survey of UK Internet users - people said they trusted content on local news sites almost three times more than they did on social media.

Today we publish our online advertising charter (available at 1xl.co.uk/ad charter). The purpose of this is to ensure our advertisers are given the chance to see the standards and processes we work to in order to guarantee that they get the transparency, trust and value that we believe they deserve.

We stand in agreement that local news brands online are now more than ever a great place for you to communicate and market your business and brands to UK consumers.

What's more your advertising helps us to continue to fund much needed, high quality local journalism. We hope you will stand together with us to support our local news brands, many of which have been publishing for over 150 years, so their unique content can continue to be loved and trusted for many generations to come.

Raise a glass to the Phil Beer Band

LEVELS of excitement among local music fans will be going through the roof on Saturday, May 27th as The Phil Beer Band tour bus comes to town.

Celebrated multi-instrumentalist and 'bon viveur' Phil Beer will be appearing with what he describes as his 'Musical Family' at The David Hall, South Pethererton.

"It all started back in the early 1980s" explains Phil. "Our village hall in Gloucestershire needed a ceilidh band so I recruited a bunch of mates and off we went".

Nobody expected the band members to reach such dizzy heights in their respective careers, least of all Phil himself who is now generally regarded as one of the finest folk/rock musicians in the country. As well as being half of the multi award winning duo Show of Hands, he has recorded with The Rolling Stones, Steve Harley and Mike Oldfield amongst a legion of others. His fellow band members have also carved out hugely successful careers either as soloists or as members of other top folk and rock bands.

So, what draws these top musicians back together when they are all so busy elsewhere?

"We are a family, and all families have reunions" says Phil. "We catch up with each other's news. We laugh together and play music together, and in so doing we remind each other why we started doing this over thirty years ago. It's a glorious musical celebration of enduring friendship. Even our road crew and our support band "The Hawthornes" are family. It's the most joyous, exhilarating highlight of my musical calendar".

The night promises to be an extravaganza of what Phil describes as "Folk'n'Roll" so join the party on Saturday, May 27th when The Phil Beer Band plays at The David Hall, South Pethererton.

Psychic Vibration on the Medium Wave

EX-HAIRDRESSER Steve Holbrook, regarded by many as one of the UK's top Clairvoyant Mediums, is visiting locally very shortly, and he explains how he hears the voices of our loved ones that have passed away. His ability started from behind the salon chair, and he now visits Theatres and Hotels around the country, and as far as the Caribbean, demonstrating his unique ability to act as a telephone exchange between this world and the Spirit world.

Steve says that he was always aware from being a child that life existed beyond the grave, when he awoke to find 5 soldiers marching through his bedroom, but could only see the top half of them floating through the room. "This was very un-nerving experience but it was to give me an early glimpse of what was to come, and now it's as natural as breathing to me"

Steve started work in Leeds city centre in a busy hairdressing salon, and feels that the through to her in one of Steves messages, and said to the daughter "don't forget the brown Prada handbag on Friday". The lady replied "I'm putting it in my mums coffin on Friday, she only died 5 days ago". Who would know this information?

One of Steves best friends is the multi-talented Jane MacDonald, singer and co-presenter on ITV's Loose Women. Steve met Jane in a Spiritualist Church many years ago, and predicted she would be on BBC TV as part of a cruise entertainment documentary. She didn't believe it, but the year after it came true, and she was the star of The Cruise, the first docu-soap, and she had the biggest selling debut album of all time. She has dedicated her auto-biography to Steve, calling him her inspiration and guru, and can't thank him enough for being there when she needs guidance.

Steve has three books out, 'Light in the Darkness', 'Out of this World', and 'Survival', and these all offer a true insight into the day-to-day life of a working medium, Steves beliefs on many areas of Spiritualism, and a great background in to Steves life.

Steve has raised tens of thousands of pounds for charities over the years, £50000 for his local hospice in Wakefield, £5000 for MacMillan Support, and most recently our current total for PACT – a charity that helps terminally ill children and their parents across the country – is almost £30,000. He is dedicated to raising funds and awareness for this charity.

Don't miss this emotional rollercoaster ride of an evening, a night to remember!

Stephen Holbrook comes to the Beehive, Honiton on Tuesday, April 11th. 7pm doors, 7.30pm start. Tickets are £17 in advance, £18 on the door. See the advert below for more details.

great family films, 'Sing' (U) on Saturday, April 8th at 10am and 3pm. Buster Moon, a theatre owning Koala, decides to put on a Singing competition to save his Theatre from closing down. Then we have the hugely entertaining 'Lego Batman' (PG) on Saturday 15th April at 10am and 3pm.

The following weekend, Saturday, April 22nd at 3.30pm we have a really delightful family show 'According to Arthur' as a part of the Spring Fair with the Thelma Hulbert Gallery and Toast. For those curious to know more about 'According to Arthur' and to see if their youngsters will like this utterly charming show do pop into Honiton Library at 2pm on Thursday, April 6th for a free taster. An ideal show for a first theatre experience, suitable for age 4+, adults will love it too!

For the bigger kids we have three fantastic gigs lined up with the lovely local folk/pop duo 'Sound of the Sirens' appearing on Friday, April 7th. Exeter based Hannah and Abbe are very popular on the festival circuit and we are thrilled to have them here as part of their tour to launch their fab new album along with their support acts, local singer/songwriter Victoria Pearce and Jim 'Small Town Jones'.

On Friday, April 14th Rusty

Shackle return to the Beehive. This brilliant six piece with their distinct folk-roots sound and armed with an electrifying mix of rampant fiddle, scorching electric guitars, pounding drums, searing trumpet and banjo were such a hit last time we had to have them back!

We are also delighted to welcome back the fabulous Phil Beer Band on Saturday, April 29th, this fast, frenetic, feel-good band are not to be missed.

We have two great British films to offer this month with 'I, Daniel Blake' (15) on Friday, April 21st. A middle aged carpenter who requires state welfare after suffering a heart attack is joined by a single mother in a similar scenario. BAFTA Outstanding British Film of the Year 2017.

On Friday, April 28th we have 'Denial' (12A) Acclaimed writer and historian Deborah E. Lipstadt must battle for historical truth to prove the Holocaust actually occurred when David Irving, a renowned denier, sues her for libel. Starring Tom Wilkinson, Tim Spall and Rachel Weisz.

At 2pm on Friday, April 28th there is the Nostalgic Cinema screening of 'Somewhere in Time' (PG), for £3.50 to include tea, biscuits and chat in the café bar!

This month we are also hosting Alice Holmes' photo exhibition, a selection of beautiful images of the South West and beyond so do drop in to browse in the gallery, pick up a flyer and say hello. See you soon, Wendy.

Britain's Got Talent finalist to headline Pilot Boat's Comedy Club

COMEDY impressionist and Britain's Got Talent (BGT) finalist Danny Posthill headlines this weekend's Pilot Boat Comedy Club in Lyme Regis.

Seen by millions in the BGT 2015 final, Danny

Posthill has since performed all over the world working alongside some of the biggest names in comedy after he stunned the BGT judges with his hilarious portrayals of everyone from fellow comics Billy Connolly and Jimmy Carr to famous faces such as David Beckham and Gary Barlow.

Danny is now carving a career for himself on the alternative comedy circuit and will be coming to Lyme Regis for the first time next week to headline the Pilot Boat Comedy Club.

Joining Danny will be the hilariously downbeat Welsh funnyman Rob Hughes. Rob has gained a local following with performances at the Jurassic Fields Festival and Bridport Arts Centre in recent years and his despairing observations on family life never fail to entertain.

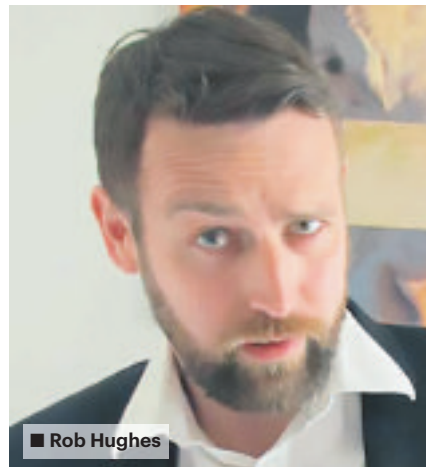

Completing the line up will be political satirist Don Biswas and London comedy circuit and Edinburgh fringe festival regular Nig Lovell.

As ever, local comedian Tom Glover will MC the show, chatting with the crowd and road testing his latest material.

This month's Pilot Boat Comedy night will be this Saturday, April 8th at 8pm, doors open at 7pm. Tickets are £8 and are available from the bar on 01297 443157 or on the door. Book early to avoid disappointment.

The stomping sounds of New Orleans jazz

THERE'S no need to hop on a transatlantic flight to hear the unique genre of music produced by the 'crescent city' of New Orleans' when the Sunset Café Stompers will bring it to your doorstep! Headed up by founder member and piano whizz Mike Denham, the Stompers boast a talented line up of musicians who specialise in playing exciting New Orleans jazz and on Friday, April 14th they will be doing so at Ilminster Arts Centre.

The band takes its name from The Sunset Café, a top nightspot on Chicago's infamous South Side. Al Capone owned it, Louis Armstrong starred there. The Sunset Cafe Stompers play the music of that period, including great tunes from Scott Joplin, Irving Berlin, Jelly Roll Morton, Duke Ellington and Fats Waller, but the band's wide repertoire also features songs made famous by artists as diverse as Patsy Cline, Marilyn Monroe, the Inkspots, Fats Domino and even Mr Elvis Presley.

The variety of music itself is significant, evocative of the elusive, shifting, pulse that defines the sound of New Orleans. The city has a tradition of bands being hired to attract a crowd, or to add spirit and generate excitement for all kinds of occasion. Since their foundation in Dorset in the early 1980s the Sunset Café Stompers have followed in that tradition: playing at festival and jazz clubs the length and breadth of the country, down to Cornwall and up to Cumbria, as well as wedding, funerals, garden parties and village halls.

Over the years the band personnel has changed and adapted but the current line up is Mike Denham (piano and band leader); Steve Graham (trumpet); John Coad (drums); Pete Middleton (trombone); Eddie Edwards (banjo); Pete Ward (bass); Mike Betts (clarinet and tenor sax).

Advance booking recommended for what promises to be a memorable evening of jazz at its most sublimely entertaining. Box Office 01460 54973.

Banff Mountain Film Festival Tour is returning bigger than ever

THE Banff Mountain Film Festival World Tour is back in the UK and Ireland for 2017, with more screenings and more action than ever before.

The festival tour comes to Yeovil on April 25th at the Octagon Theatre.

"It's fantastic to be back with our biggest tour yet – a reflection of the enormous appetite for adventure that UK and Irish audiences have," says Tour Director Nell Teasdale.

"The Banff Tour is more than a series of exhilarating film nights. Each screening offers a real sense of community, bringing together people with a wide range of outdoor passions. And we guarantee that viewers will leave with new enthusiasm and inspiration for their own adventures too!"

The short films, starring the world's top adventurers on exciting journeys in mind-blowing destinations, are selected from hundreds of films entered into the prestigious Banff Mountain Film Festival held every year in the Canadian Rockies.

This year's UK and Ireland tour includes 14 hugely diverse films, featuring everything from tales of high-adrenaline action to poignant environmental documentaries. There's also a significant focus on women in adventure; and the collection stars a number of UK adventurers, as well as athletes and escapades from all over the globe.

The films are split between two different programmes, each lasting about 2 1/2 hours, with free prize giveaways at each screening. The tour is part of the wider Banff World Tour, which travels the globe each year, visiting nearly 50 countries and reaching more than 400,000 people worldwide.

The full film programme is available at www.banff-uk.com/films. For more information and to book tickets see www.banff-uk.com.

Kate Rusby to play Yeovil's Octagon Theatre next month

OF ALL the stars in folk music's wondrous firmament, few shine as brightly as Yorkshire's Kate Rusby. A career which spans across 25 years in music showcases her as one of the finest interpreters of traditional folk songs and one of our most emotive original songwriters.

Forever proud to call herself a folk singer, Kate's beautiful, expressive vocals never fail to connect the emotional heart of a song to that of her audience. The crossover appeal Kate enjoys is unprecedented for a folk singer and has been achieved without resort to compromise. Rusby's wondrous singing and hugely engaging Yorkshire wit and the intuitive support of the band ensure that audiences will be treated to a truly remarkable and unforgettable concert experience.

Audiences are sure to be thoroughly entertained by Kate's choice of much-loved classics from her back catalogue stretching over her two decades of music making together with a selection of fresh new songs from her latest album Life in a Paper Boat (autumn 2016 release). As ever, she will be joined on stage by the cream of British folk musicians who form her band. These virtuoso artists are sure to delight you with their exceptional talents.

Kate Rusby plays at The Octagon Theatre, Yeovil on Friday, May 19th. For more details call 01935 422884 or visit www.octagon-theatre.co.uk

Nicky Sweetland's

Showtime

ON THE SHOWBIZ BEAT

Not your normal Wednesday at the boozer!

THIS week has been filled with sex, sex and more sex. Well, I don't mean me - I like to share my life with my readers, but even I realise that would be a step too far - no, I mean the shows I've seen this week have all been of the more debauched variety.

My first trip was down to the lovely Southwark Playhouse, just a few minutes from Waterloo. A musical called The Life is currently being performed there and it's a real must for musical theatre fans.

Yes, it is about prostitution, but nevertheless, it boasts a great story, fabulous music by Cy Coleman - who famously composed the music for Sweet Charity - and a fantastic cast including Sharon D. Clarke. Many will know Clarke from her recurring role in BBC1's Holby City, but I know her best as being the original Killer Queen in the musical We Will Rock You, and her voice is one of the richest and most dulcet I have ever heard.

I then popped down to a little pub theatre to see a show called Escape the Scaffold. I should know by now really, that if something has dystopia anyway near the plot description, I'm not going to understand it. I'm always left feeling a bit stupid if I've gone to a show and I don't know what's going on and I can see how, if it were your first experience of theatre, it might put you off. Oh, and the show also had some full frontal nudity - not something I was fully prepared for above a pub on a Wednesday afternoon!

Luckily the next show on my agenda was easy to follow and extremely good. I was lucky enough to get the opportunity to see Broadchurch star David Tennant in Don Juan in Soho at the Wyndham's Theatre and he was utterly entrancing as the devilish dandy.

The role is a far cry from that of DI Alec Hardy, the Dorset crime-solving saint in Broadchurch, and instead shows Tennant's enviable range as an actor, with his immense comedy talent fully on display.

I finished the week with a trip down to Exeter's Northcott Theatre to review Dracula: The Bloody Truth, another comedy with a demonic anti-hero as its central character. The show is brand new and although there are a few things that could do with a bit more development, it promises to be a future hit.

Next week I'm interviewing the legendary Millicent Martin, who is filming with Joan Collins, Michael Ball, John Barrowman and Liz Hurley in the Sidmouth Area for a new film called Melody The Musical.

I've also had to choose between two shows I would like to see with Edward Albee's The Goat or Who is Sylvia?, starring Damian Lewis and Sophie Okonedo, and 42nd Street both on the same night.

As much as I would love to see Damian Lewis, I'm afraid he's not as attractive to me as a stage filled with tap dancers and jazz hands, so I'm off to see Sheena Easton make her West End debut in 42nd Street at my favourite London venue, the Theatre Royal Drury Lane. I will try to catch up on the Edward Albee play at another point if I can fit it in.

I'm also off to see a play at the National Theatre called Consent, which stars Ben Chaplin, who recently titivated television audiences with his performance alongside Emily Watson.

You can read all of my reviews and interviews on our websites londonnewsonline.co.uk and viewnews.co.uk or you can follow me on Twitter for regular updates @NickySweetland

Help us celebrate life in the best part of the West Country

Week in, week out, our journalists faithfully tell the stories that matter to the people who live in the towns and villages of Devon, Dorset and Somerset

For the team at View News, it's a privilege and a pleasure to celebrate all that's great about our corner of the region and to contribute to the conversations and debates that enthuse, inspire – and sometimes divide – our communities

We lead busier lives than ever. There are many more events crammed into our diaries and many more issues for us to contend with – all competing for our time and support

Which is why we are inviting readers of this newspaper to help us record the busy and eventful lives of the communities we serve

It's easy and fun to be involved

YOUR STORIES

BEAMINSTER'S JEREMY SMITH RUNS THE YEOVIL HALF MARATHON FOR SANDS CHARITY

JEREMY Smith is seen here after finishing the recent Yeovil Half Marathon. Jeremy commented "This year Symonds & Sampson were heavily involved in sponsoring the Yeovil Half Marathon. It is one of the town's biggest sporting events and as a community supporting estate agent we wanted to offer as much help as possible. I do the run every year and really enjoy it. I ran to raise money for Sands the Stillbirth and Neonatal Charity in memory of Charlie the stillborn baby boy of friends of mine. The charity is incredibly supportive in the event of such a tragedy. It was quite an emotional day being Mothering Sunday but not only was my time a few seconds, literally, less than last year I managed to beat my target of £500 so I was extremely pleased. I wonder if I can improve next year."

Although the event is now over you can still make a donation to Sands on Jeremy's Just Giving page

Updated Golf GTE drives hybrid value

THE updated Volkswagen Golf GTE is open for sale in the UK with a significant price realignment, two trim levels and a raft of new technologies on board.

Driving even greater value for money into a growing area of the UK market, the petrol-electric hybrid Golf GTE offers a compelling mix of engaging GTI-style dynamics, responsible e-Golf-style sustainability and generous GTE-style range.

The updated Golf GTE is now available with a choice of two new trim levels. The entry-level Golf GTE is joined by the new GTE Advance in a range line-up that now mirrors that of the award-winning Passat GTE.

The hybrid powered five-door Golf, with both a 150 PS 1.4-litre TSI petrol engine and a 102 PS (75Kw) electric motor for a system power output of 204 PS, unites economy and performance in a flexible and appealing package.

The total potential range of the Golf GTE is 514 miles and the GTE's battery gives an all-electric range of 31 miles. This opens up the possibility of driving significant distances cross-country using the TSI petrol engine and then completing the journey into a town or city under zero emission full electric power.

Official performance figures for the 204 PS Golf GTE show it capable of covering the 0-62 mph sprint in 7.6 seconds with a top speed, where legal, of 138 mph. CO2 emissions are 38g/km for the GTE and 40g/km for the GTE Advance, while combined fuel economy is 166 mpg for the GTE and 157 mpg for the GTE Advance.

Sitting alongside the range of the Golf GTE is its ability to offer high performance driving when required. A press of the centre console-mounted GTE button combines spirited acceleration that comes via the instant torque of the electric motor working alongside the broad power of the turbocharged petrol engine.

Both the updated Golf GTE and Golf GTE Advance are equipped with a host of premium features such as full LED front and rear lights with sweeping indicators, Active Info Display, and Volkswagen Car-Net App Connect functionality.

The GTE Advance adds further luxuries such as 18-inch Marseille alloys, the updated Discover Navigation system, a Winter Pack including heated seats, 65 per cent tinted windows, a front centre armrest and exterior e-sound.

The GTE offers four operating modes: 'E-Mode', 'GTE mode', 'Battery Charge' and 'Hybrid'. In pure electric mode (activated at the press of a button), the Golf GTE can travel up to 31 miles emissions free. Electric power can also be saved – for example when driving to a zero-emissions zone. In electric mode, the GTE is capable of speeds of up to 81 mph.

The 8.7 kWh lithium-ion battery can be charged in 3.45 hours from a domestic mains outlet, or 2.15 hours from a domestic wallbox. The battery weighs 120 kg, giving a kerbweight of 1,615 kg.

The GTE also has an e-manager which allows the driver to preset vehicle charging, as well as interior cooling or heating. These functions can be operated remotely using the Car-Net app on a smartphone.

A full range of assistance and infotainment systems is also making its way into the Golf GTE. Thus the Volkswagen is available for the first time with Traffic Jam Assist (semi-autonomous driving up to 37 mph), the fully digital Active Info Display and the optional Discover Navigation Pro infotainment system including 9.2-inch display and gesture control.

Director of Volkswagen in the UK, Alison Jones, said: "The new Golf GTE – with its revised pricing and significantly enhanced appeal – perfectly represents Volkswagen's ongoing commitment to offering accessible hybrid technology in an attractive and usable package."

"The updated Golf GTE, sitting alongside the rest of the 113-model updated Golf range, is more than ever a genuine alternative for everyday driving and we are looking forward to seeing more private buyers, and fleet users, take the opportunity to explore its capabilities on UK roads."

For more details on all the cars in Volkswagen's updated Golf range, together with brochures and pricing and to use Volkswagen's online configurator, please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk.

All new Nissan Micra: The revolution has begun

THERE is only one word to describe the All New Nissan Micra – revolutionary. Now in its fifth generation, this new model is a massive progression from the one it is replacing, and from the trio of highly successful superminis which date back to the Micra's debut in Europe in 1983.

The new Micra is longer, wider and lower than ever before. The car has been repositioned at the very heart of the ultra-competitive European B-hatchback segment.

Conceived, designed and engineered with those customers' requirements at the top of the agenda, Nissan has a clear ambition for the new Micra; it should re-establish itself inside the top 10 sellers in the segment, and compete head-to-head with the best and most popular in the class. Benchmarked against key rivals, Nissan believes the All New Micra meets and exceeds its targets.

Key to its appeal is the car's athletic and expressive exterior design, which moves the Micra name plate in a daring new direction. The contemporary look and premium feel continues inside, with a high-quality cabin that boasts two-tone soft-touch materials as standard across the range. Thanks to outstanding packaging, the five-door-only body shell boasts best-in-class ergonomics for front seat occupants, with no compromise to rear passenger space. The boot is big enough to easily cater for customers' needs.

The All New Nissan Micra is also a technology leader, with a number of 'in-control' features – the sort usually associated with more expensive models – now available for the first time. Not only are they new to the Micra, they're new to the segment. These include Intelligent Lane Intervention, a safety system which gently corrects the Micra back on to the right path should it be required.

Nissan's acclaimed Intelligent Around View Monitor camera system – as seen on the Qashqai and Juke crossovers – is also available on the Micra for the first time. These and other technologies are a clear demonstration of Nissan Intelligent Mobility, the brand's vision for a zero emissions and zero fatalities future.

For music fans, a highlight of the new Micra will be the BOSE Personal audio system. Unique to the B-hatchback segment, advanced speakers built into the driver's head rest put the driver at the heart of the listening experience.

The All New Nissan Micra is also a fantastic car to drive, with a dynamic performance that is the perfect balance between agility, excitement and the secure feeling that comes with confident and predictable handling.

The car is available with three downsized engines – two petrol and one diesel – all linked to a five-speed manual gearbox. Nissan's familiar five grades of Visia, Visia+, Acenta, N-Connecta and Tekna all feature a high level of standard specification.

Customers' desires to express their own personalities and design tastes through the new Micra will be another part of its appeal. The car will be available with a wide range of personalisation options, modifying the exterior and interior with premium components in a variety of stylish and contemporary colours.

Nissan's brand promise – Innovation that Excites – is evident in every part of the new Micra, and nowhere is that more obvious than with Nissan Intelligent Get&Go. It's a shared vehicle leasing scheme that is running as a pilot in Paris during 2017 and, if successful, will be extended to other countries.

It's also clear evidence of how the customer is at the centre of this latest chapter in the Micra success story. Intelligent Get&Go provides increased access to the new Micra through its innovative digital partnering of consumers. This allows them to benefit from great value leasing rates which are fully aligned to their motoring requirements.

Guillaume Cartier, Senior Vice President Sales & Marketing at Nissan Europe, commented: "We have taken the European compact car segment to a new level by focusing on what customers really want today and expect tomorrow. The All New Nissan Micra is an exceptional car, characterised by its expressive design, uplifting interior and confident drive."

He added: "There is so much affection in Europe for the Micra, clearly demonstrated by more than three decades of heritage and more than 3.5 million sales. It was famously the first Japanese model to win the European Car of the Year title in 1993."

Match reports

Beer Albion 1

Honiton Town 1

Devon & Exeter Premier

BEER Albion achieved a very creditable and well-deserved 1-1 draw against table-toppers Honiton Town in a thrilling contest at the Furzebrake on Saturday writes Richard Honnor.

The Fishermen played out of their skins, first matching their talented opponents with some great football of their own and then, as the game progressed, producing a magnificent rearguard action to deny the Hippos the three points.

After an early scare when keeper Mark Rooke made a fine block after hesitancy in the Beer defence, the Fishermen tore into the Honiton defence. On five minutes a goalbound shot from Chris Long was deflected behind. From the resulting corner the Hippos scrambled the ball clear after a goalmouth melee.

Long then rattled the crossbar with a 25-yard free-kick before missing a great chance shooting over the bar from 15 yards.

The game was still only 10 minutes old when Beer spurned another chance as Simon Smith spooned his 20-harder high over the Honiton bar.

The Furzebrake faithful were beginning to think that Beer would pay dearly for these missed opportunities as Honiton began to settle and take the game to their hosts.

Honiton winger Chris Long (no relation to the Beer striker) blasted a 25-yard free kick over the bar, Rooke made a wonderful save on 18 minutes twisting in mid air to push a header from Hippo's striker Joe Mulhall over the bar.

On 23 minutes defender Shaun Denslow was injured after a strong 50-50 tackle, but he typified the Beer spirit as he carried on in considerable pain for the full 90 minutes making crucial blocks and winning important headers as Honiton piled on the pressure.

Back came the Fishermen, and on 32 minutes a through ball from midfield dynamo Hunt found Richard Walker whose shot from 20 yards had the Hippos keeper at full stretch. A minute later Beer had strong appeals for a penalty waved away when Honiton's centre back appeared to handle in the box.

But then hosts only had to wait a couple more minutes before going in front. Beer's Chris Long found Luke Bartlett who squared to Smith whose 20-yard effort took a cruel bounce in front of the Hippos keeper who could only help the ball into the net.

The Fishermen had a great chance to go two-up on 39 minutes but Bartlett hooked wide from close range.

The Fishermen knew that Honiton would come at them in the second half and defended deep conceding most of the possession to their opponents. It was a risky strategy as time and again Honiton's wide players got behind the Beer lines and delivered quality crosses into the Beer box. But the Fishermen's defence coped well under the mounting pressure.

The Hippos should have scored on 47 minutes when Mulhall headed over from eight yards and five minutes later a free kick skidded wide. The Fishermen survived another scare on the hour when a Honiton effort hit the underside of the crossbar.

The Hippos were now piling bodies forward into the box and the equaliser eventually came on 69 minutes, this time striker Mulhall beating Rooke with a firm header from another quality cross from Hippo's Chris Long.

Beer defended resolutely for the remaining 20 minutes to save a as the crosses rained in. Veteran centre back Mike Wheeler organised his defence superbly and deservedly received the man-of-the-match award for Beer. For Honiton winger Chris Long was outstanding.

Fishermen's player-boss Richard Walker was delighted with his players, he said: "They all worked so hard for each other today. I am particularly thrilled by how the young players have developed over the last year."

"I have told them that there is no reason why they cannot be challenging the likes of Honiton and Newtown in a couple of seasons if they continue to work as hard as they have done this season and learn from senior players."

Next week Beer can expect another tough home game against HEAVITREE UNITED. Kick-off at the Furzebrake is at 3pm and the match sponsor is Kenworthy and Arbourn Builders of Beer.

Millwey Rise 2 Winchester 3

Division Five

IN their final game of the season Millwey were edged out by the odd goal in three writes Dick Sturch.

Winchester went in front after 30 minutes when Matt Baker cleverly flicked the ball home from close range after the hosts had missed several opportunities.

But, at the other end, it was only some excellent interceptions by Zak Meaker and fine saves from keeper Nathan Hoole that allowed Millwey to go into the break just one down.

It took only five minutes in the second period for Rise to draw level when Nathan Womersley slotted the ball past the keeper.

Ten minutes later Winchester dissected Millwey's defence and Dec Vowden put the finishing touches to the move to score.

After this the game got a little frisky which was to Millwey's advantage as they pressed forward with first Alex Rocket and then Chris Lusby rattling the visitors' bar.

Womersley then brought out a great save from the keeper before, completely against the run of play, a breakaway saw Winchester increase their lead through Aplin.

Millwey again applied the pressure, hitting the upright, then a shot from Fraser Beament scraped the crossbar before another attack saw a cross from Chris Lusby guided the wrong side of the post by Jack Farrant.

Lusby then supplied an exquisite cross which Haydn Lewis headed powerfully past the Winchester keeper for the goal of the game.

This has been a difficult season for Manager Simon Flint, moving up a Division and without several of last season's players who made it so successful.

His determination to give all his team choices game time, including all the substitutes, is to be admired and will stand the team in good stead for the future.

In this game Meaker was outstanding in the middle of the back four. The Lewis brothers certainly made their presence felt in thwarting the visitors' attacks and keeper Hoole kept a possible victory within reach.

Amory Green Rovers Res 3

Millwey Rise Res 1

Division Nine

ON a pitch which quickly resembled a swamp, Millwey, playing their last game of the season, were undone by three self-inflicted mistakes which gifted Amory the win.

Although the whole team contributed to a good all round performance under the conditions they were a goal behind at the break.

James Morgan reduced the arrears from the penalty spot early in the second period but a further two goals from the home side proved too much pull back.

Youngsters Liam Best, Jack Bennett and Henry Alexander Mitchell all excelled for Rise that once again highlighted the promising young talent the Club is developing for the future.

Memorial Match

ON Saturday, April 22nd Millwey Rise FC will have an afternoon in Memory of Tony Miller at Cloakham Lawns commencing at 2pm.

Tony was a player, committee member and loyal supporter of the club throughout many years. The club invites all past and present players to get their boots out and join in a match to turn back the years.

There will be a BBQ, Penalty Shoot-Out Competition for the youngsters and music in the bar.

Round-up

with Collin Goodwin

HEAVITREE UNITED pulverised BOW AAC 13-1. Jordan Harris starred with four goals, Eliot Wells and Evra Yao on his debut scored twice, singles added by Dan Jones, Matt Byrne, Sonny Devine and Stuart Davies. The Bow reply came from Peter Steer.

ELMORE kept the pressure on the top two with a 5-2 win against SEATON TOWN, Jacob Rowe and Seth Wakeley netted the consolations.

CLYST VALLEY and FENITON shared a 5-5 draw, Chris Clow (2), Troy Membury (2) and Eliot Wells on target for Cyst.

OKEHAMPTON ARGYLE in great form put paid to EXMOUTH AMATEURS 7-0 with Brad Ausden getting a hat-trick. Dale Chadwick, Luke Mortimer, Alex Wren and Ed Squire also scored.

NEWTOWN had to fight back from 2-1 down to beat a gallant LYME REGIS 4-2 in the quarter final of the East Devon Senior cup.

Sam Day and Sam Pollard-Jones had the two Lyme goals, but Newtown, who scored in the first minute of both halves then took control. Dale O'Donoghue, Ben Howard, Cory O'Donoghue and Luke Jones had the Newtown goals.

NEWTOWN ST CYRES bounced back after last week's defeat to shatter a very disappointing TOPSHAM TOWN 5-0.

The only game played in Division Three saw HONITON fight back to draw 4-4 with AXMINSTER TOWN after being 3-1 down. Luke Finn, Sol Filleul, Gary Spiller and Joe Urquart netted for the Tigers.

Defeats for both CENTRAL and EXWICK VILLAGE have ruled them out of catching Division Six leaders Winkleigh who were not in action, but Central's 3-1 loss at LYME REGIS means that the Dorset side are now the only side who can deny the Winks.

Two Steve Batey goals - one a stunning header, the second a penalty which saw the visitors' end the game with 10-men, saw the Seasiders home.

TEN-man Hawkchurch United remain in contention in the Division One title race after winning 4-2 at Shepton Beauchamp Reserves.

James Melville put the Hawks ahead with his 41st goal of the season only for Tom Lock to cancel it out. Josh Short made it 2-1 but Shepton battled back with Jack Lyons squaring things up once again.

Short bagged his second before the visitors had keeper James Mitcham red carded by referee Steve Rider for handball outside of the area - a decision which both teams thought was harsh.

MoM Short completed his hat trick in the second half to clinch the win.

The downturn on Saturday afternoon saw the Ken Hodges Cup quarter finals between FARWAY UTD and Charnmouth abandoned after 25 minutes.

The match had been switched from a waterlogged Eastlee Park to Axminster Town's second pitch at Tiger Way.

Finally, a Charlie Horn goal couldn't save FARWAY RESERVES from a 3-1 defeat at Thorncombe Reserves in Division Three.

Dyer and Couch have last laugh in HaHa Competition

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

FORTY seniors took part in the March monthly stableford qualifier on Monday in spring like conditions. The favourable weather assisted the golfers in achieving reasonable scores with five members finishing below par.

Results: Division One – 1st Rod Stevens (40 points), 2nd Terry Rutherford (37), 3rd Bob Barrow (35).

Division Two – 1st Tony Stenhouse (40), 2nd Robin Flower

(37), 3rd Jerry Stephens (37).

Meanwhile, the Senior Saints match team entertained Sidmouth.

Result: Roger Stone & Lindsay Gage won 4&3, George Wallace & Roger Davis won 3&1, Barrie Heath & Andy Beale won 3&2, Ian Griffiths & Peter Spencer-Farr won 3&1, Keith Potter & John McOmish won by 2 holes, John Pearce & Nobby Hodder lost 3&2.

On Friday 34 pairs entered the March Hare competition the first of the seniors' major competitions.

Conditions were tough due to strong winds, and the putting surface was bumpy. Consequently the scoring was inferior to the norm.

Result: Winners - Peter Spencer-Farr & Ian Housman 43 points, runners up: Trevor Dobson & Dave Porter 41.

HONITON with John Pawley

EARLY last week the greens staff took the opportunity granted by some good weather to work on some of the greens.

Despite this, 26 players took part in this month's drawn mixed greensomes on Tuesday. The victorious couple was Susan Hyde & Barry Rogers with 38 points, winning the Centenary Goblets.

They were followed by Sue Kelson & Paul Ritchie (37), Dot Grove & Stan Squire (35) and Linda Northover & Max Pipe

The ladies competition had to be called off mid-round due to fog. Next week a 14 hole shotgun start, fun competition precedes the Spring Fair.

The Seniors had two away matches last Tuesday. Alan Pollock took a team to play in the Jurassic Challenge at Lyme Regis where they completed just a few holes before the match was fogged off.

Captain Mike Sennitt had much better weather for the first friendly of the year where they went down 4-2 at Tiverton.

Meanwhile, nearly 60 seniors competed on Friday in the last round of the Eclectic which was coupled with a Stableford competition.

A number of temporary greens meant that the competition was a non-qualifier. Alex Neil blitzed the course with 42 points.

Next in Division Two was John Pawley with 37 followed by Bob Cleal and John Chew, both with 35.

The Division One winner was Paul Ritchie with 37 followed by Mike Stroud (36), Alan Devenny (35) and Bill Eaton (34). Three twos' on the second by Alan Richardson, Tom Stanton and Alan Devenny were matched by Bob Cleal's two on the 10th.

The winter circus competition reached its finale on Saturday in appalling conditions. This year's winner of the converted Circus Shield for the highest number of points was Darren Morgan. The player achieving the most birdies during the whole competition was Ross Latchem.

The final of the HaHa competition took place on Sunday morning when the pairing of Elliot Dyer & Lewis Couch triumphed over Wally Ritchie & Tim Denne of 3&1.

The Sun Am matchplay has reached the semi final stage where Paul Vaughan & Dave Mitchell overcame Rob Willey & James Drew 2up, and Ian Piper & Julian Bacon beat Keith Crane minus his partner Ian Guy, 4&2.

Local runners toil in Taunton sunshine

Axe Valley Runners with Dave Mutter
THE glorious weather for the TAUNTON Half and Full Marathons meant that instead of looking for long sleeved shirts to wear people were starting to think about sun screen!

AVR had the double act of Steve Reynolds and Geoff Woodward in the marathon. Woodward just edged the inter club battle finishing 103rd in 3:54:32, while Reynolds was 111th in 3:59:53.

The half was also a success, Peter Knox and Rachel Grant completed their first ever 13.1 mile race.

First AVR home was Matt Hewer 45th in a new PB of 1:26:12.

Knox was 384th in 1:51:54 while Elizabeth Ricketts and Rachel Grant finished together in 600th, 2:04:12.

James Ashforth ran in the ASICS GREATER MANCHESTER marathon and smashed his PB finishing 4,125th out of 8,686 in 3:58:49.

Ethan and dad Jonathan Day completed the DAWLISH NOVICE AQUATHLON with Ethan finishing 2nd having done a much faster swim than last time. Jon was 3rd and would like to thank Team Pure Endurance Triathlons for all their brilliant help, advice and Training.

There were lots of first timers at the SEATON PARKRUN on Saturday including winner Oliver Thorogood of Aberystwyth AC who completed in 17:13. Laurence Edgley was 2nd, 17:59 and James Cope 3rd, 18:43. Jane Beech of N1 Tri club was the ladies winner, 14th overall in 22:36 and 138 completed the event.

scrum down chard rugby

Neighbours serve up Friday night feast

WITH GLYN HUGHES

Chard 33 North Petherton 38 South West One

THIS was a pulsating game played in front of a crowd exceeding the 500 and fully justified the experiment of playing this local derby under lights on a Friday evening.

The crowd included a large contingent from Pethy, and the blinkered view of the game from both sets of very vociferous supporters added to the spicy atmosphere, not to mention the six cards and 11 tries!

Chard gave colts' winger Emile Szydelko his senior debut but the visitors on the scoreboard after six minutes when flanker Carl Brown powered over for an unconverted effort.

The game changed just before the 20-minute mark when Chard took a penalty in front of the posts very quickly instead of taking the easy three points on offer and scrum half Siljeur crossed for a try converted by Oesman.

This was quickly followed by try number two when a stunning move from deep in their own half was completed by full back Ben Stead. Oesman again added the extras.

Chard got a third converted try when back row forward Will Hopkinson broke clear from some loose play to make the score 21-5

Things became heated in the final minutes before half time and in two separate altercations two players from each side were sent to the bin to cool off!

Pethy pulled a score back when James Taylor crossed for a try converted by Olly James.

This was quickly followed by a home player being shown a red that clearly did not do Chard any favours for the rest of the game. The game had been very competitive but some of the cards had been debatable to say the least.

Chard, leading 21-12 at half time, lost hooker Ben Robinson after he had made a terrific tackle and Petherton were right back into the mix when Brown went over for his second try again converted by James to make it 21-19.

Chard were under the cosh for a spell but their forwards got them back into the game and opted to take five metre scrums following a number of infringements which could well have led to a penalty try.

However, Mika Hartley got over for a fourth bonus point try that was again converted by Oesman.

Now trailing 28-19 in a fantastic game, Petherton got back to within two points with a converted try from Nic Sestaret and then took the lead 28-31 with another unconverted try from Henry Gliddon.

It looked as if Chard were finished but another wonderful counter attack from deep in their own 22 saw Johnson cross for Chards fifth try.

But in the final minutes of the game Sam Williams broke through to get the decisive try to win the game for the visitors, but there was more as a Pethy player was shown a second yellow and subsequently a red in one of the final plays of the match.

This was a great game, yielding two bonus points, but if they can compete like this why are Chard in the position they find themselves in?

A long time injury list is a factor but quite simply they seem unable to replicate their home form on their travels.

Note: the Chard 2nd xv game v Yeovil scheduled for Saturday, April 15th will now be played tomorrow (Wednesday) at 7 30pm.
